Quiz Results

Mostly As

You fall into the category of the "Do Not Disturb" romantic. You are charmed by the idea of a getaway that provides seclusion, seduction, and intimacy. Time alone for the two of you is essential. Your main purpose is to "cocoon." It is important that you do not concede on this point. When choosing your destination, make sure that your accommodation offers privacy as well as your desired level of comfort. Excellent room service would be a nice benefit. Adding in picturesque surroundings will only enhance the level of romance.

Mostly Bs

You fall into the category of the "Splurge and Spree" romantic. Luxury and amenities are the key words to focus on for your romantic getaway. There are no limits to spoiling yourselves. Whether you indulge in an expensive shopping spree, a day at the spa with ultimate pampering, or an exquisite gourmet dinner for two, you deserve all of the extravagances that you desire. Excess is not a "naughty" word on this trip! Lazy days and steamy nights should be your daily routine.

Mostly Cs

You fall into the category of the "Out and About" romantic. You know that being active can be very romantic. Whether you play a round of tennis or golf, go horseback riding at sunset, or go on a hike at sunrise, you know that getting out and doing will be a component of your getaway. But you will also want quiet time for those nice dinners or evening strolls. Make sure you choose a location that makes it easy to get to the kind of activities that you desire. Unless hiking or four-wheel driving is your only activity of choice, you will not want to be in a remote location. And you still enjoy the creature comforts that an accommodation has to offer and variety that an area has to present.

Mostly Ds

You fall into the category of the "Great Minds" romantic. An important feature to your getaway will be the ability to stimulate your mind as well as your heart, body, and soul. You will want the opportunity to hear the symphony perform, have tickets for the theater, or see the Monet exhibit at the local art museum. You may want to bring along some items on your trip to enhance your romantic interlude, like your favorite book of poetry or some of your favorite CDs. An area that offers cultural activities and events will be perfect for you.
